Gatehouse Bank Property Policy

DEFINITIONS

Flats and Maisonettes:

- For a flat or maisonette (purpose built or a conversion) to be acceptable as suitable security it must meet the following criteria:
 - It must have an appropriate access;
 - The unit must be self-contained with private facilities and separate services;
 - It must be subject to a lease with a minimum unexpired term of 70 years at the time of completion and 40 years unexpired term of the lease at maturity; or
 - It can be purpose built or a conversion.

New Build:

- An initial occupancy/new build property is classed as any property being occupied and/or sold for the first time on the open market in its current state.
- These are likely to fall into one of five main categories:
 - Newly built property (from single units to large sites).
 - Re-build of an existing residential property where the vendor is a builder/developer and the property has been vacated to allow for the re-build to be undertaken.
 - Re-furnished property with significant alterations.
 - Converted property.
 - A property, either new or converted (as above), that has been tenanted through a 'Try Before You Buy' or 'Rent Before You Buy' scheme or held as trading stock and is now offered for sale by the builder/developer.
